Our Prayer for this week

Everlasting God, we bring our prayers to you, asking that your blessing of love and peace may be known to all people everywhere.

Holy God, we pray for your church, especially for the people you have called to be prophets and teachers in our generation. We pray they will be strengthened and protected by the Holy Spirit and that through them your Church will reveal the good news of salvation drawing all people together under your rule of justice and mercy.

Creator God, we are your chosen stewards of this beautiful world; you provide us with seed and soil to sow them. We look for forgiveness for the damage we have done to this earth and pray that you would show us ways of healing the wounds that we have inflicted on the land.

Father God, we pray that in our communities all will be welcome and accepted regardless of nationality, colour, gender or status and that we will seek always to serve you.

Gracious God, we raise before you all those who seek healing of body, mind or spirit asking that they feel your peace and presence alongside them, each and every step of their journey towards healing.

Loving God, we remember before you all those who have died. May they see your salvation and find their peace and final rest in you

Faithful God, we offer you these prayers for ourselves and for others. We ask you to accept them and to use them, and us so that your will may be done on earth and more of your kingdom revealed to those who seek you.
