Our Prayer for this week
O God of truth and justice, we hold before you those men and women who have died in active service: in the two World Wars, Iraq, in Afghanistan and elsewhere. As we honour their courage and cherish their memory, may we put our faith in your future; for you are the source of life and hope, now and for ever. Amen.

Please pray for this week:
All members of all armed forces guarding the safety of our nation, the Royal Airforce in the skies above, the Army on land and the Navy keeping our seas safe; all working in any department of Healthcare, those in administration to those on the front line supporting patients and their families; the highways department keeping our roads safe and in good repair; all working within Horticulture; local Hospices' dedicated staff from MacMillan or Marie Curie nurses and St. Barnabas charity.

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY 2026

On Sunday 15 November 2026 and over the following weeks, thousands of churches from diverse backgrounds and traditions will join together to shout about safeguarding and help protect vulnerable people.

This initiative, spearheaded by Thirtyone:eight invites communities to come together to reflect on their safeguarding journey, and highlight all the good work that is being done to create safer places.

Come and find out more here at St Botolph's Quarrington Sunday 15th November 10.30am Holy Communion

WHAT'S THE BIG DEAL?

In its simplest terms, safeguarding is the protection of those in our care. In 1 Corinthians 13, we're told that love protects. Safeguarding is an act of love. And love is central to our faith. Sadly, the church hasn't always done this well. But we have a chance to change that. We are already seeing many churches take the responsibility to safeguard those in their care seriously. Join us!

Last year over 5,400 churches took part in Safeguarding Sunday, with an estimated reach of over 250,000 people. This year, with your help, we can create more safer places and protect more people from harm.

ABOUT SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY

Safeguarding Sunday is an annual awareness campaign led by Thirtyone:eight, the UK's leading Christian, independent safeguarding charity. On 15 November 2026, churches across the UK will once again come together to reflect and take action to build safer communities.

Now in its 8th year, Safeguarding Sunday continues to unite churches of every tradition. Last year, over 5,400 churches took part — demonstrating a shared commitment to caring for and protecting those in our care.

This year, our theme is Love Protects, rooted in the well known passage from 1 Corinthians 13, which reminds us that "love always protects." Safeguarding isn't bureaucracy. It isn't a distraction from ministry. It is ministry — a Christian act of love in action.

"Prayer for Sleaford"

Churches Together Sleaford District are excited to launch a new prayer initiative 'Prayer for Sleaford'. It follows the much appreciated annual prayer involvement with Thy Kingdom Come and the regular monthly Saturday Prayers recently drawn to a close.

Angela Pope (from St Botolph's, Quarrington) shared a vision for Sleaford being impacted by the Kingdom of God through passionate prayer and seeking God's will.

Those from all churches are invited to gather together for prayer on the second Wednesday of each month from 7-8pm. The first gathering will be on Wednesday 11th November at St Botolph's, Quarrington. After that we will move around the various churches seeking involvement in this prayer initiative. During the hour, we will be praying for Sleaford and for each other's churches.

To help organise this we are looking for prayer champions from each church who will be able to attend regularly, help organise the events, and encourage others to be passionate about praying for Sleaford. If you are interested in doing this, please contact the Leadership from your church. Initial arrangements will be co-ordinated by Angela and she can be contacted on 07932 646561 or at apope04@hotmail.co.uk
